

Liguori Albert Perron

Liguori Albert Perron was born 1 July 1895 in Mendota, Dakota County, Minnesota. He was one of a large family of children of Alexander Perron (1858-1913) and Ellen Huard or Uird (1863-1931), both of French-Canadian ancestry. His father was born in Mendota and his mother was born in Inver Grove. They were farmers in Mendota.

Liguori Perron enlisted on 24 June 1918 and received his military training at Camp Grant, Illinois and Camp Upton, New York. Liguori served in Company B, 353rd Infantry Regiment, 86th Division and saw severe fighting in France.

Perron died from wounds received at the battle of Bois de Bantheville, France, on 22 October 1918. He was buried at the Meuse-Argonne American Cemetery in France. His remains were exhumed in 1921 and returned to the United States. He was reinterred at St. Peter's Cemetery in Mendota.
