

Anthony Frank Hable

Anthony Hable was born on November 28th, 1897, in Saint Paul, Minnesota, to Frank and Mary Hable. He lived most of his life at his childhood home in West Saint Paul. On February 6th, 1918, at the age of 21, Anthony enlisted in the Army Coast Artillery Corps. He was in Battery "F" 3rd Battalion 75th Artillery and was stationed in Key West, Florida. He sailed out of Hoboken, New Jersey, on the USS Siboney on October 5th, 1918, for Europe. Anthony returned from the war on the USS Aeolus out of St. Nazaire, France, on February 25th, 1919. He was discharged from the Army on March 31st, 1919.

After being discharged, Anthony returned to his parent's home in West Saint Paul, where he worked as a carpenter for building construction. On July 11th, 1936, Anthony married Barbara Mages. They had one daughter, also named Barbara (1939-1959). Anthony and his wife Barbara ran a tavern on Bernard Street in West Saint Paul. He died on March 30th, 1973, at the age of 75, and is buried at Fort Snelling National Cemetery.
