Frank Henry Barger

Frank Henry Barger was born on June 22, 1891 (possibly 1890) in Lakeville, Minnesota to parents Henry and Elizabeth Barger. He moved to Rosemount where he worked as a carpenter for Herman Ehrler. In November 1911, he married Madeline Agnes Heinen.

Barger was registered into the draft on June 5, 1917. However, he never served in the military, for unknown reasons. He had eight children with his wife: Madeline, Frank, Raymond, John, Joseph, Alfred, Lawrence, and Leo. Madeline, his wife, passed away in 1933. Her cause of death is unknown. Lawrence and Leo also died at unknown dates before Barger's death.

After the war, Barger continued his profession as a carpenter in Rosemount. He then worked for the Minnesota State Highway Department as a maintenance worker until retirement. In 1965, Barger moved to St. Paul where he lived with his daughter Madeline for several years. During the last four years of his life, Barger resided at Parkway Manor Nursing Home. Barger died at the age of 83 on April 19th, 1974 in Ramsey County, Minnesota. His body rests in the St. Joseph Cemetery in Rosemount. At the time of his death, Barger had 23 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.
