Alma Cora Bullard

Alma Bullard was born in Fairmount, Minnesota on January 10, 1895 to Charles Frederick Bullard and Marilla Ann Snow Bullard. Her mother died in 1908 when Alma was fourteen. We found very little information on the Bullard family in Fairmount.

We know that Alma volunteered in 1917 from her home in San Benito, Texas to serve as a United States Army Nurse. On May 15, 1918 she was assigned to Base Hospital #28. This hospital was organized by the Christian Church Hospital in Kansas City, Missouri and then in February of 1918 it was transferred to Fort McPherson, Georgia. Alma did not serve overseas. She was discharged in February of 1919.

She moved to Minneapolis, Minnesota and boarded or lived with her sister Hazel. She was first a private nurse and then because a Public School Nurse. She worked at this occupation for twenty years until she retired.

Alma never married. She died on July 6, 1942 at the age of 47 in Minneapolis. She is buried in her hometown of Fairmount, Minnesota at Lakeside Cemetery.

San Benito -- Friends here regret to learn of the death of Miss Alma Bullard, former local resident, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, Monday, following a lengthy illness.

Miss Bullard, sister of Mrs. E. W. McAllister and Mrs. Roy A. Brink of San Benito, had been ill for some time, and both of her sisters had been called to Minneapolis when her condition became critical.
The former local resident served as an Army nurse during the first World War, having enlisted in 1917 in San Benito.

Burial with full military honors was at Fairmont, Minnesota Thursday.

Surviving relatives here in addition to the two sisters are a nephew and niece, Richard Brink and Miss Marilla Brink.
