George M. Burt

George M. Burt was born on January 2nd or 21st, 1899 in Wisconsin. His parents were Mary and Albert Burt. Albert was an English immigrant and Mary was a German immigrant. George had two siblings, Gladys and Alfred. Prior to his military service, George worked as a yark clerk in Minneapolis.

George registered for the draft on September 12, 1918. He lived in Hennepin County, Minnesota at the time. George was a Private in the Student Army Training Corps. George probably also served with Company A, 1st Infantry Division, 1st Machine Gun Brigade, A.E.F. of the U.S. Army in Western Europe.

In 1920, George was living with his family in Minneapolis. He worked as an installer for a telephone company at this time. George died on November 21, 1953 and was buried at Prairie View Cemetery in Grangeville, Idaho.

Photo source: Dakota County in the World War