Alfred Gernard Edmond

Alfred (Gunnor) Edmonds was born on June 5, 1993. He registered for the WWI draft in Farmington at the age of 24 and he was drafted. He was working a railroad coal passer. He was part of a group of 13 boys from Farmington that would leave for Camp Dodge, Iowa on March 1, 1918. It is not known if he ever made it to Camp but he was reported as a deserter. He may have died or disappeared but no records after this date can be found in the United States.
